

The Law Firm of Stock and Leader is pleased to announce

James E. Chiaruttini, Esquire

joins the firm as a Partner.

Jim concentrates his practice in all aspects of business and commercial litigation, as well as in trust and estates dispute resolution. Jim has been advising business and individual clients on litigation, arbitration and mediation matters in the York and surrounding areas for nearly ten years.

Jim is admitted to practice before all State courts in both Pennsylvania and Maryland, and before the Federal courts of both the Middle and Eastern Districts of Pennsylvania. He is a member of the Pennsylvania and York County Bar Associations, and the Pennsylvania and American Trial Lawyers Associations. Jim is a member of the prestigious Million Dollar Advocates Forum. This national organization exclusively recognizes trial lawyers who have achieved a final verdict resulting in an award of one million dollars or more.

While Jim devotes significant time to his practice, community involvement is also a high priority for Jim, and he sits on the local non-profit Boards of the York Benevolent Association, Eastern York County YMCA, and York County Crime Stoppers.

Jim received his B.A. in Policy Studies from Syracuse University and his Juris Doctor from The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, where he served as Co-Captain of the National Trial Team.
